SPEAKS TO HARVARD UNION

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22.—President Roosevelt left Washington at 5:38 o'clock this afternoon on the Federal Express via the Pennsylvania Railroad for Boston, Mass., between which

The President was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. The Massachusetts trip is purely a personal one, the President and Mrs. Roosevelt desiring to spend a short time with their son, Theodore, Jr., who is at Harvard and will be in school at Groton. The only function in which the President will participate to any extent while away will be the reception of the Harvard Union at Cambridge Saturday afternoon. At that time he will deliver a carefully prepared speech. Previous to the reception he will attend a luncheon given by the Sphinx Club, a university organization.

In Boston the President is to be the guest of a former Harvard classmate, Dr. W. S. Bigelow, while Mrs. Roosevelt will visit at the home of Mrs. George E. Lee, on Chester Hall. Mrs. Longworth and Miss Ethel Roosevelt also will go there on arriving in Boston.

Saturday evening the President will attend a gathering of the Porcellain Club of Harvard to witness the initiation ceremonies attending the induction of his son, Theodore. Saturday, about noon, Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Ethel, will go to Groton to see Kermit, and will remain there until Sunday, when they will get back to Boston in ample time to take the Federal Express leaving at 8 o'clock for Washington.

increasing the pumping capacity of the city's plant is apparent. Mr. Boiling recommended an expenditure of about $200,000 for the installation of hydraulic gregation of embryo orators, known as the Chatham Debating Club, met at the residence of Mr. J. E. Barrow, No. 624 North Seventh Street, and after battling over the relative merits of the two great Americans, awarded the palm to the printer rather than the soldier. The question for debate was: Resolved, That Benjamin over the relative merits of the two great Americans, warded the palm to the printer rather than the soldier. The question for debate was: "Resolved, That Benjamin Franklin was a greater man than George Washington." Messrs. E. O. Hedrick and W. F. Elliott championed the cause of "Poor Richard," and Mr. J. H. Barrow and Dr. Sutherland advocated the other side.

Mrs. J. H. Barrow offered a gold ring as a prize to the winning side, and it was awarded to the affirmative, or Franklin side. Mr. Hedrick and Mr. Elliott cast lots for the trophy, and Mr. Elliott "outlooked" his colleague.
